

GHMS Summer Reading Fanfiction

Description: Fanfiction is generally considered a written response in which fans create a new story based on their favorite book. Fanfiction can take many forms.

- Missing Scene: Write an additional scene or chapter for your book that stays true to the original characters and overall theme or plot of the book.
- Alternate Perspective: Retell a portion of the story from the perspective of a different character.
- Sequel or continuation: Write a sequel or continuation of the story, picking up either immediately after or at some point in the future after the original story ends.
- Prequel: Write a story that occurs prior to the beginning of the original story.
- Self-insert: Add yourself to the story by writing you in as another character.

What to do:

Before you start your story, include the following information:

- Title of Book
- Author
- Type of Fanfiction
- Title of Fanfiction
- Your Name

Include a disclaimer statement: This (insert your Fanfiction Title) is based on (insert original author's name) book (insert title of original book). Copyrights belong to the (original book's publisher).

- It should be at least two handwritten pages (one front and back) or one page typed.
- Be sure to follow rules for capitalization, punctuation, and spelling.
- Turn in this paper attached to your story.

The other book I read this summer was _____.

I liked/disliked it because _____
